“ANTI-PLASTIC RALLEY”

MS College of Law organized a campaign to raise awareness about the need to abolish non-recyclable plastics began across the State on Saturday, ahead of the ban on disposable plastics from January next year. Er. Shoeb Khan, the President of HEWS who inaugurated the campaign from the Campus said that everyone know that they cannot change things all of sudden, but we aim to instill good habits among citizens, and the students who can help us implement the changes. Also, we at MS College of Law Campus have planned to collect all the plastic at one place ,which is mostly thrown here and there if found, and then send it for recycling or put it to proper use.

The programme also received a media coverage in the local TV channels of Mumbra and Thane area.
